

National Black MBA Association® Appoints Advisory Council

ATLANTA (November 2, 2018) - The National Black MBA Association® and its Board of Directors are pleased to announce the establishment of the NBMBAA® Advisory Council. This newly formed Council is comprised of NBMBAA® members and thought leaders, representing a wide-range of industries who will leverage their skills, resources and talents in support of the NBMBAA's mission to lead in the creation of education, wealth-building, and growth opportunities for its members.

The Council will serve as a team of senior advisors providing valuable input to help shape future strategy with a goal to enable the development of new programs and initiatives that will be transformative in strengthening personal and professional development for all members.

"We are excited to have this esteemed group of leaders working with us to continue to enhance the NBMBAA® value proposition to grow membership, expand corporate partnerships and strengthen sponsorships." said Donald Comer, NBMBAA® Board Chairman.
