

Brittney Mamon is a fourth-year student in the 5 Year MBA program with a Leadership Studies minor at Hampton University. As a trailblazer in her community, she has always shown a passion for serving and uplifting those around her. Moreover, Brittney's leadership and business acumen strengths enable her to have a notable impact. Her leadership roles and involvement include serving as: the President of the Hampton University Chapter of the National Black MBA Association (NBMBAA), a member of the Student Recruitment Team, a Student Government Association Senator, a Business Big, a fellow in the William R. Harvey Leadership Institute, an Industry Scholar in the James T. Georges School of Business, a member of the National Association of Black Accountants and as Chapter Treasurer of the Gamma Theta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. In addition to volunteering over 400 hours within the Hampton Roads community, she also was an active volunteer at St. Paul's Baptist Church while living in West Chester, Pennsylvania, and she continues to serve at A.W.E Bassette Elementary School as well as other institutions around her to make a difference.

Brittney Mamon has been a member of the Hampton University Chapter of NBMBAA since 2017. In Spring 2019, she served as the Secretary and from Fall 2019 to the present, she serves as the President. As President of the Hampton University Chapter of NBMBAA, she manages membership retention, outreach, corporate networking opportunities, and logistics of events in financial literacy, professionalism, fundraising, community service, and more. The Hampton University Chapter of NBMBAA has a strong relationship with A.W.E Bassette Elementary and Brittney works to sustain that. Brittney Mamon also spearheaded the collegiate partnership between the Hampton University Chapter and NBMBAA Headquarters. More recently, Brittney Mamon was a recipient of 2020 KeyBank HBCU/NBMBAA Scholarship and attended the 2020 NBMBAA National Conference.

Brittney has strong aspirations and is constantly surrounded by a supportive network of family, sorority sisters, and close friends along the way. At the top of her class with a 4.06 GPA, she is a high achiever that embraces academic excellence and a strong work ethic. Throughout her collegiate career, she has interned at a Big Four Firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers, within both their Internal Firm Services and Core Assurance departments. She also worked at State Farm Insurance as a Marketing and Retention Intern for one year. Currently, she assists NASA as a Disaster Communications Intern. Brittney is also a recipient of the Credential of Readiness designation for the business world from Harvard Business School in 2020.

She has big plans for her future as she intends to graduate with her Master of Business Administration with a focus in accounting. Her primary goal is to become a Certified Public Accountant and ultimately have that lead to a role in public accounting. Her career interests are rooted in accounting, business, and leadership, and Brittney desires to continue to serve the communities around her along the way in order to make a positive impact wherever she can.
