

Vonnice J. Boone, MBA, is a Project Manager II at Walmart Inc., where she focuses on Associate Resource Groups (ARGs). She has been with Walmart Inc. for five (5) years. Her career with Walmart started in 2016 as a temporary associate in Global Audit Services, where she worked on the Sarbanes Oxley Team (SOX). After three months, Vonnice became a permanent role in Global Audit Services working on processes such as Payroll, EPS, Derivatives, Shopping Card, Sales and Use Tax, Legal Accrual, and Accounts Payable, and Foreign Corruption Practices Act (FCPA) where she performed confidential internal compliance audits. She is also an adjunct instructor at The University of Arkansas, teaching Accounting Principles II.

Vonnice is very active in the community where she is a member and Treasurer of the Phi Alpha Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated in Northwest Arkansas, the co-chair of the Sam Walton College of Business Diversity and Inclusion Corporate Advisory Board at the University of Arkansas, a council member of the Northwest Arkansas MLK Council, the President of the Endo Black Board of Directors, and President of the NBMBA[®] Northwest Arkansas Interest Group. Vonnice is also an entrepreneur, alongside her husband.

Vonnice has two sons ages 12 and five (5). She graduated as a first-generation college student with a Bachelor's of Science in Accounting from North Carolina A&T State University, December 2007 and an MBA from University of Maryland, May 2012. Vonnice is a future doctor pursuing a Doctorate in Education with a focus on performance improvement leadership from Capella University.