

CONNECTING YOUR COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY TO THE CONFERENCE EXPERIENCE PRESENTED BY:

The National Black MBA Association (NBMBA[®]) has selected your college/university to participate in the Student Service Learning Experience at the 2022 Annual Conference and Exposition presented by NBMBA[®]. This is a volunteer opportunity for graduate students and undergraduate sophomores, juniors, and seniors with a career interest in business or an advanced degree (students in other majors may participate as well as non-members).

The NBMBA[®] is a non-profit organization founded in 1970 at the University of Chicago, dedicated to the enhancement and development of educational and economic empowerment for African Americans. Like-minded professionals and students are able to share common experiences, histories, and career goals and aspirations. Dedicated to developing partnerships that result in the creation of intellectual and economic wealth within the Black community, the Association is in partnership with more than 400 of the country's top businesses and business organizations. The organization also has inroads into a range of industries as well as the public sector.

The organization gains its strength from a strong belief in community and a commitment to its development through economic and educational development. The main idea of the National Black MBA Association[®] is for members to create a network of Black MBA holders and students seeking an MBA degree. This Conference is one of our premier products and services. The Annual Conference and Exposition is one of the largest professional development and job recruitment events in the nation. Each year, this successful affair attracts thousands business-minded attendees who are fascinated to know about topics including career, education, entrepreneurship, lifestyle, and leadership.

The Annual Conference offers a myriad of opportunities designed to execute career enhancement, branding, recruiting, retention, and corporate citizenship goals. Using the conference as a platform, The Association is committed to assisting Learning Institutions in the preparation of students for careers in business and other advanced degrees. By committing your students to serve as volunteers at the Annual Conference and Exposition in Atlanta, Georgia, you allow us to expand their world of knowledge and opportunity. This exposure to top rated businesses and corporations, as well as leading business professionals, can contribute to their educational and career pathing success, by informing next steps and creating networking opportunities.

Our student volunteers opportunities will allow them to sit-in on workshops; assist with produced events, such as luncheon featuring fortune 500 keynote speakers. In addition to working conference hospitality and registration opportunities; marketing & social media. This experience provides free access of the Career Expo Floor which features over hundreds of exhibitors from various industries. Participating students will be allowed to post their resume on the conference's nationwide job seeking portal, along with receiving on-site resume review and one-on-one job interviewing coaching.

Also, the value of the NBMBA[®] Student Membership will be introduced and participating students will qualify to win a one-year student membership. Lastly, this volunteer opportunity can be used by your students to fulfill community service hours.

We invite you to schedule a call or an "Info Session" to get more information regarding this extraordinary service learning opportunity. Contact Lisa Bridges | Host Chapter Volunteer Coordinator at: LBridges@atlbmba.org | or Jennifer Christian Chapter VP of Administration at: jchristian@atlbmba.org

We look forward to working in collaboration with your learning institution to assist in developing today, the business professionals of tomorrow!
